

Alera Group Healthcare Professional Liability Division

The Alera HPL Advantage

Alera's Healthcare Professional Liability team is led by physicians and attorneys 100% focused on medical malpractice and the healthcare business.

We work with healthcare clients around the country and offer unparalleled expertise and direct, responsive service. We advocate for clients aggressively on an ongoing basis, understanding your business dynamics and goals to chart multi-year strategies for your risk management and insurance needs.

Specialized

In the field of medicine, specialization requires extra time and training: this focused effort benefits patients. In our malpractice solutions, we echo that philosophy. Our HPL Division specializes in and offers a wide range of solutions for all types of healthcare practices. We strive to educate and collaborate with our clients to develop medical liability coverage that is genuinely customized.
